

Women's Breakfast | Topic: White Fragility

March 23, 9:30 am | Lower Hall

Unitarian Centre 213 2nd Street East

We will hear some case studies from Robin DiAngelo's book White Fragility: Why it's so hard for white people to talk about racism, and consider the ways in which they may or may not reflect our own experiences. Advance reading of the book is welcome but not required. All who identify as women are welcome.

This event is part of our ongoing three-month "Launching the Journey: Truth-Telling, Healing, and Reconciliation."
